INFORMATION

The United States Attorney charges:

INTRODUCTION

Unless otherwise stated, at all times material to this Information, the following was true:

1. The International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace, and Agricultural Implement Workers of America (referred to herein as “UAW” or as “United Auto Workers”) was a labor organization engaged in an industry affecting commerce within the meaning of Sections 402(i) and 402(j) of Title 29, United States Code. The UAW represented hundreds of thousands of non-managerial employees employed by automobile manufacturers and other employers at numerous locations in Michigan and across the United States. The UAW was headquartered in Detroit, Michigan.

2. The UAW Region 5 Midwest States Community Action Program (CAP) Council (“UAW Midwest CAP”), the UAW Midwest CAP’s predecessor entities, and the UAW Region 5 Southwestern States CAP Council (“UAW Southwest CAP”) were labor organizations engaged in an industry affecting commerce within the meaning of Sections 402(i) and 402(j) of Title 29, United States Code.

3. The UAW Midwest CAP, its predecessor entities, and the UAW Southwest CAP are some of the UAW’s many Community Action Program Councils funded through “per-capita” tax payments derived from member dues. Both CAP councils existed as labor organizations subordinate to the UAW and were governed by the UAW Constitution and its bylaws. The UAW Southwest CAP was based in Dallas, Texas; while the UAW Midwest CAP was located at the UAW Region 5’s headquarters in Hazelwood, Missouri. UAW Region 5 was an internal subdivision of the United Auto Workers International union.

4. The UAW, the UAW Midwest CAP, and the UAW Southwest CAP were required to file publicly available annual financial disclosure reports with the United States Department of Labor.

5. From at least in or about 2010 through at least September 2019, EDWARD N. ROBINSON was the President of the UAW Midwest CAP or a predecessor entity. As such, EDWARD N. ROBINSON was an officer, within the meaning of Sections 402(n) of Title 29, United States Code, and was responsible for overseeing the operations of this UAW entity.

6. From in or about 2010 through September 2019, UAW Official A and Vance Pearson served as either an officer or direct employee of the United Auto Workers.

7. From in or about 2010 through in or about 2018, UAW Official B served as either an officer or direct employee of the United Auto Workers.

8. From in or about 2010 through in or about 2016, UAW Official C was directly employed by the United Auto Workers.

9. From in or about 2010 through in or about 2016, UAW Official D served as either an officer or direct employee of the United Auto Workers.

10. From in or about 2010 through in or about 2012, UAW Official E served as an officer of the United Auto Workers.

COUNT 1

18 U.S.C. § 371 & 29 U.S.C. § 501(c)
Conspiracy to Embezzle Union Funds

D-1 EDWARD N. ROBINSON

1. The allegations contained in all preceding paragraphs are hereby re-alleged and incorporated by reference in Count 1 as if fully set forth herein.

2. From at least in or about 2010 and continuing through in or about September 2019, both dates being approximate, in the Eastern District of Michigan, Southern Division, and elsewhere, the defendant, EDWARD N. ROBINSON, Vance Pearson, UAW Official A, UAW Official B, UAW Official C, Union Official D, and UAW Official E did unlawfully, knowingly, and willfully combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with each other and with other individuals, both known and unknown, to commit an offense against the United States, that is, to violate Title 29, United States Code, Section 501(c), embezzlement of union funds.

3. During the course of the conspiracy, while EDWARD N. ROBINSON, Vance Pearson, UAW Official A, Union Official B, UAW Official C, Union Official D, and UAW Official E, were officers of the United Auto Workers or were employed directly by the United Auto Workers, they did embezzle, steal, and unlawfully and willfully abstract and convert to their own use more than $1.5 million of the moneys, funds, property, and other assets of the United Auto Workers.

MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

The manner and means by which EDWARD N. ROBINSON and others, both known and unknown, sought to accomplish the conspiracy, included, among other things:

4. While officers or employees of the United Auto Workers, UAW Official A, UAW Official B, UAW Official C, UAW Official D, UAW Official E, Vance Pearson, and EDWARD N. ROBINSON were involved in a multifaceted scheme to embezzle funds from the UAW. One facet of the scheme involved fraudulently obtaining hundreds of thousands of dollars of UAW funds from the UAW headquarters, the UAW Southwest CAP, and the UAW Midwest CAP. Much of this money was obtained through the submission of vouchers that claimed the payments were for legitimate expenses for UAW Region 5 conferences. In reality, the vouchers concealed the true destination of the funds and the true purpose of the expenses, which was for the personal benefit of select senior UAW officials. Another facet involved a scheme to fraudulently divert over $500,000 of union funds from the UAW Midwest CAP or its predecessor entities, a significant portion of which was converted to cash, to further fuel the lavish lifestyles to which these officials became accustomed.

5. While officers or employees of the United Auto Workers, UAW Official A, UAW Official C, Vance Pearson, and EDWARD N. ROBINSON established “Master Account” arrangements with various hotels across the United States. Ostensibly, these hotels contracted to facilitate various union conferences and meetings related to UAW Region 5. However, the Master Accounts were used to divert hundreds of thousands of dollars of UAW funds for the personal benefit of select senior UAW officials, including UAW Official A, UAW Official B, UAW Official C, UAW Official D, Vance Pearson, and EDWARD N. ROBINSON. These Master Accounts were funded, in part, by the UAW Headquarters based on fraudulent vouchers submitted by senior UAW officials, which misrepresented the destination and purpose of the expenses. Although the vouchers represented the payments were to the hotel for legitimate conference expenses, significant portions of the funds were forwarded through the Master Account to outside vendors for personal expenses including cigars, private villas, high-end liquor and meal expenses, golfing apparel, golf clubs, and green fees. If funds from the UAW’s headquarters were exhausted or additional funds were needed, checks were issued from the UAW Midwest CAP and UAW Southwest CAP to satisfy debts incurred by senior UAW officials for illegitimate and personal expenses. This portion of the fraud resulted in the unauthorized or improper disbursement of over $1 million of UAW funds.

6. While an officer of the United Auto Workers, UAW Official A directed EDWARD N. ROBINSON to divert over $850,000 from the UAW Midwest CAP through the acquisition of unsubstantiated and unauthorized UAW Midwest CAP checks. Previously, UAW Official E had directed EDWARD N. ROBINSON to similarly divert money from the UAW Midwest CAP. To conceal the theft, EDWARD N. ROBINSON was directed by UAW Official A to fraudulently backstop the payments with receipts for fake expenses or for expenses which had already been fully paid. Many of the receipts for expenses utilized by EDWARD N. ROBINSON for the cash embezzlement portion of the conspiracy had already been paid for by the United Auto Workers through the Master Account scheme detailed above in order to fraudulently justify the reimbursement of EDWARD N. ROBINSON with UAW Midwest CAP funds.

7. During the course of the conspiracy, EDWARD N. ROBINSON negotiated between $500,000 and $700,000 in fraudulent, unsubstantiated, or unauthorized checks from the UAW Midwest CAP. EDWARD N. ROBINSON negotiated these checks into cash. After EDWARD N. ROBINSON obtained the cash, he split the hundreds of thousands in dollars in cash proceeds with UAW

Official A, just as EDWARD N. ROBINSON had previously supplied cash to UAW Official E. On occasion, EDWARD N. ROBINSON would give cash generated from the scheme to other co-conspirators, including UAW Official C. Between 2010 and 2017, UAW Official A deposited over $93,000 in cash into one of his personal bank accounts.

8. During the course of the conspiracy, portions of the over $850,000 in proceeds from the UAW Midwest CAP portion of the conspiracy were used to pay for personal expenses of EDWARD N. ROBINSON, Vance Pearson, Union Official A, Union Official B, Union Official C, Union Official D, and Union Official E.

9. During the course of the conspiracy, EDWARD N. ROBINSON made significant purchases of high-end liquor, cigars, wine, golf apparel, golf clubs, and other lavish expenses at the direction of and for senior UAW officials.

10. As part of the scheme, UAW Official A, UAW Official C, and Vance Pearson provided EDWARD N. ROBINSON with receipts for paid expenses that EDWARD N. ROBINSON used to fraudulently backstop the unsubstantiated or unauthorized checks from the UAW Midwest CAP.

11. As part of the scheme, UAW Official A sometimes instructed EDWARD N. ROBINSON to issue checks from the UAW Midwest CAP in odd amounts so as to conceal the embezzlement activity from accounting scrutiny. UAW Official A also cautioned EDWARD N. ROBINSON to avoid cashing any check in excess of $10,000 so as to avoid causing a bank to generate any currency transaction reports.

12. It was a part of the conspiracy that the conspirators caused false UAW records to be maintained and false reports to be filed by the United Auto Workers headquarters in Detroit, Michigan with the Department of Labor, wherein the embezzled funds and fraudulent expenditures were concealed as legitimate expenses of UAW conferences.

OVERT ACTS

In furtherance of the conspiracy, and to effect the objects thereof, the defendant and his co-conspirators committed and caused to be committed the following overt acts, among others, in the Eastern District of Michigan, and elsewhere:

13. In or about December 2015, UAW Official A ordered $13,046.91 in cigars from the Gary's Sales company located in Parker, Arizona. The order by UAW Official A included 12 boxes of Ashton Double Magnum cigars at $268.00 per box (totaling $3,216) and 12 boxes of Ashton Monarch Tubos cigars at $274.50 a box (totaling $3,294). Subsequently, the cost of the cigars was concealed within the expenses of a UAW Region 5 conference, and the UAW headquarters in Detroit that paid for the conference was never told that the purported expenses of the conference included over $13,000 in cigars.

14. In or about June 2016, a UAW accounting official challenged the propriety of an expense of $19,041.33 for “outside vendors” which had been submitted to the UAW headquarters for payment by Vance Pearson and UAW Official A in connection with a UAW Region 5 conference in California. On or about June 8, 2016, in an e-mail message, Vance Pearson falsely told the UAW accounting official that the $19,041.33 expense had been for “meals.” In truth and in fact, however, the $19,041.33 expense included $5,670.00 for golf green fees, $375.00 for tips for caddies, and $10,087.92 for golf clothing, pants, shoes, hats, gloves, shorts, jackets, golf balls, sunglasses, and other merchandise purchased by nine UAW officials, including UAW Official A and Vance Pearson.

15. On or about August 29, 2016, EDWARD N. ROBINSON wrote and cashed a UAW Midwest CAP check for $9,200 and split the resulting cash proceeds with UAW Official A. This was done at the direction of and with the full knowledge of UAW Official A.

16. Ostensibly, the $9,200 check was to reimburse EDWARD N. ROBINSON for UAW Midwest CAP expenses for meals at the Blue Heron Restaurant and HK's Steakhouse and Bar in Lake Ozark, Missouri. EDWARD N. ROBINSON attached these receipts to the check after the check was negotiated to lend credibility to the disbursement. In fact, however, the exact same meals were also paid for with funds derived from the UAW headquarters in Detroit for purported conference expenses through a Master Account arrangement.

17. In or about November 2016, Vance Pearson ordered over $13,000 in cigars from the Gary's Sales company. The order by Pearson included 16 boxes of Diamond Crown Churchills at $243 a box (totaling $3,888) and 10 boxes of Ashton Monarch Tubos cigars at $274.50 a box (totaling $2,745). Subsequently, the cost of the cigars was concealed within the expenses of a UAW Region 5 conference, and the UAW headquarters in Detroit that paid for the conference was never told that the purported expenses of the conference included over $13,000 in cigars.

18. In or about December 2016, January 2017, and February 2017, the UAW Midwest CAP issued checks to EDWARD N. ROBINSON in the amounts of $6,554.54, $9,600, and $2,000. Ostensibly, these monies from the UAW Midwest CAP were to reimburse EDWARD N. ROBINSON for four meals in January 2017 at Las Casuelas restaurant and LG Prime's Steakhouse in Palm Springs, California.

The UAW headquarters in Detroit, Michigan, however, also paid for these exact same four meals through a Master Account arrangement, purportedly in connection with a UAW Region 5 conference.

19. In or about January and February 2017, EDWARD N. ROBINSON cashed the three checks described above and then split the proceeds with UAW Official A.

20. In or about late 2017, UAW Official A advised EDWARD N. ROBINSON that they needed to halt the cash embezzlement portion of the conspiracy because of the ongoing federal criminal investigation of the United Auto Workers union and because of a new UAW position being taken by UAW Official A.

21. In or about January 2019, in a meeting among EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, and Vance Pearson, UAW Official A promised to provide a sham job to a relative of EDWARD N. ROBINSON in order to “take care of” the relative if ROBINSON agreed to falsely take sole responsibility for the UAW Midwest CAP cash embezzlement portion of the conspiracy, thereby attempting to protect UAW Official A from federal criminal prosecution.

22. During a meeting in or about March 2019, EDWARD N. ROBINSON and UAW Official A discussed the government’s investigation and the sham job for ROBINSON's relative. During that meeting, UAW Official A and EDWARD N. ROBINSON also discussed whether the government had obtained documents from the union and the hotels relating to the embezzlement scheme. UAW Official A told EDWARD N. ROBINSON that he (UAW Official A) wished they "burned the records." During that meeting, UAW Official A again assured EDWARD N. ROBINSON that UAW Official A would provide for the financial well-being of the relative in exchange for EDWARD N. ROBINSON taking sole responsibility for the cash embezzlement. UAW Official A stated: "We'll take care of [the relative]. I told you that we'd take care of it." UAW Official A also expressed concern about whether federal investigators had gotten hold of records concerning the use of UAW money to purchase golf clubs for UAW Official A and other UAW officials.

23. On July 10, 2019, Vance Pearson told EDWARD N. ROBINSON he would get a "burner phone" for ROBINSON, so that the other conspirators could talk to ROBINSON over the telephone without fear of being intercepted on a wiretap by federal criminal investigators. In addition, Vance Pearson advised EDWARD N. ROBINSON that if ROBINSON had anything incriminating "at your house, then get rid of it." Pearson reminded ROBINSON what had happened after federal agents had searched Norwood Jewell's house and discovered incriminating evidence stored at that location.

24. On August 28, 2019, UAW Official A was in possession of over $32,000 in cash at his personal residence.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371 and Title 29, United States Code, Section 501(c).

COUNT 2

18 U.S.C. § 371

Conspiracy to Defraud the United States

D-1 EDWARD N. ROBINSON

1. The introductory allegations are incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

2. Between 2014 and 2018, EDWARD N. ROBINSON did unlawfully, voluntarily, intentionally and knowingly conspire, combine, confederate, and agree with UAW Official A, Vance Pearson, and with other individuals and entities, both known and unknown, to defraud the United States for the purpose of impeding, impairing, obstructing, and defeating the lawful Government functions of the Internal Revenue Service of the Department of the Treasury in the ascertainment, computation, assessment, and collection of the revenue: to wit, income taxes.

3. It was part of that conspiracy that EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, Vance Pearson, and others concealed more than $1.5 million diverted from the UAW, UAW Midwest CAP, and UAW Southwest CAP.

4. It was part of that conspiracy that EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, Vance Pearson, and others received more than $1.5 million in income from the UAW, UAW Midwest CAP, and UAW Southwest CAP, which income was falsely and fraudulently omitted from the IRS Form 990 returns filed by the UAW and UAW Midwest CAP.

5. EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, and others failed to report the income they received from their scheme to divert funds from the UAW, the UAW Midwest CAP, and the UAW Southwest CAP on their Form 1040 tax returns filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

OVERT ACTS

In furtherance of the conspiracy, and to effect the objects thereof, the defendant and his co-conspirators committed and caused to be committed the following overt acts, among others, in the Eastern District of Michigan, and elsewhere:

6. Between January 2017 and December 2017, EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, Vance Pearson, and others negotiated “Direct Bill” or “Master Account” arrangements with the Renaissance Palm Springs Hotel, Loews Coronado Bay Resort, Lodge of Four Seasons, and Thousand Hills Golf Resort. This allowed UAW officials to deposit UAW funds up-front and run a hotel tab for personal retail, grocery, meal, liquor, golf, cigar, and other entertainment expenses at vendors in and around the resorts. The resorts subsequently satisfied those debts using funds from the UAW’s deposits.

7. Between January 2017 and December 2017, EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, Vance Pearson, and others prepared, approved, and submitted fraudulent Payment Request Forms to the UAW’s international accounting staff requesting that the UAW disburse funds to Renaissance Palm Springs Hotel, Loews Coronado Bay Resort, Lodge of Four Seasons, and Thousand Hills Golf Resort. The purported purpose of the requests was for legitimate UAW business expenses related to training conferences. In reality, the forms fraudulently concealed the true purpose of the disbursements, which was to divert UAW funds for the personal benefit of high-level UAW officials. These fraudulent submissions caused UAW accounting personnel to make false accounting entries in the UAW’s books and records, which were relied upon to generate financial statements and an IRS Form 990.

8. Between January 2017 and December 2017, EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, Vance Pearson, and others facilitated the transfer of $539,608 in funds from the UAW, the UAW Midwest CAP, and the UAW Southwest CAP to the following resorts:

- $200,000 to the Renaissance Palm Springs Hotel
- $161,941 to the Lodge of Four Seasons
- $107,447 to the Loews Coronado Bay Resort
- $70,220 to Thousand Hills Golf Resort

9. Between January 2017 and December 2017, EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, Vance Pearson, and others diverted $290,852 in UAW funds held on deposit at the aforementioned resorts for the personal benefit of themselves and other high-level UAW officials. The diverted funds were spent on the following:

- $129,336 for luxury condominiums and villas
- $46,588 for lavish restaurants
- $80,904 for golf greens fees and merchandise purchases
- $15,274 for cigars and related paraphernalia
- $18,750 for spa services, clothing, musicals, amusement park tickets and other purchases for the personal benefit of UAW officials.

10. On or about November 5, 2018, a UAW official filed a 2017 IRS Form 990 on behalf of the UAW. Unknown to the UAW official, the Form 990 contained the following false statements due to the actions of the conspirators, which prevented the IRS from making an accurate tax assessment with respect to funds diverted from the UAW for the personal benefit of EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, Vance Pearson, and others:

- Falsely reported the diverted income to EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, Vance Pearson, and others as a legitimate business expense on the UAW's Statement of Functional Expenses
- Failed to disclose $290,852 in reportable income to UAW Official A, Vance Pearson, and other key employees on Part VII – Compensation of Officers, Directors, Trustees, Key Employees, etc. related to funds diverted from the UAW.

11. Between January 2017 and December 2017, EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, Vance Pearson, and others facilitated the transfer of $133,611 in funds from the UAW Midwest CAP by issuing checks to EDWARD N. ROBINSON or to cash. The checks were cashed and the proceeds were split between EDWARD N. ROBINSON and UAW Official A for their personal benefit.

12. Between January 2017 and December 2017, EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, and others collected random receipts in an attempt to legitimize the UAW Midwest CAP checks issued to ROBINSON. The receipts were collected from numerous sources and rarely had any legitimate UAW Midwest CAP purpose. The receipts were provided to UAW Midwest CAP accounting personnel and were fraudulently portrayed as legitimate CAP business expenses. These fraudulent submissions caused the UAW Midwest CAP to make false accounting entries in its books and records, which were relied upon to generate financial statements and an IRS Form 990.

13. On or about March 25, 2018, UAW Midwest CAP President EDWARD N. ROBINSON filed a 2017 IRS Form 990 on behalf of the UAW Midwest CAP. The Form 990 contained the following false items, which prevented the IRS from making a proper determination of the UAW Midwest CAP's tax exempt status and prevented the IRS from making an accurate tax assessment with respect to funds diverted from the UAW for the personal benefit of EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, and others:

- Falsely reported the diverted income to EDWARD N. ROBINSON, UAW Official A, and others as a legitimate business expense on the UAW Midwest CAP's Statement of Functional Expenses
- Failed to disclose UAW Official A as an officer, or key employee on Part VII – Compensation of Officers, Directors, Trustees, Key Employees, etc.

- Failed to disclose $133,611 in reportable income to EDWARD N. ROBINSON and UAW Official A on Part VII – Compensation of Officers, Directors, Trustees, Key Employees, etc. related to funds diverted from the UAW.
- Failed to disclose the material diversion of the UAW Midwest CAP's assets on Part VI – Governance, Management, and Disclosure and on Schedule O – Supplemental Information to Form 990 related to funds diverted from the UAW Midwest CAP for the personal benefit of EDWARD N. ROBINSON and UAW Official A.

14. On or about March 18, 2018, EDWARD N. ROBINSON signed and filed a 2017 IRS Form 1040 Individual Tax Return which return failed to report at least $66,805 in income he diverted from the UAW, the UAW Midwest CAP, and the UAW Southwest CAP in 2017.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.
